5. New Business –

- 1) Meeting with the State's Attorney and Treasurer – (Treasurer was not present for this meeting) Chairman Krueger turned the meeting over to the State's Attorney Ben Goetten to address the committee regarding talk of him losing a clerical position within his office. He stated that his clerks would be in the office Monday thru Friday and that they would no longer be working from home. He stated that he had a discussion with his employees that if working from home was something that they wished to do in the future, that they would need to bargain that matter in the union contracts. He is asking that the board strongly consider leaving the two clerical workers in his office when it comes time to work on the budget this year.
- 2) Electronic Time Clock Program – Chairman Krueger stated that there continues to be issues with clocking-in, logging off etc. and wanted to make changes to the system to only keep track of the accrued time that employees have and eliminate clocking in and clocking out. Board member Kara Ontis stated that she would get with the Treasurer on this matter as she was not present for this discussion.
